

I order online frequently and that opens my telephone number up to all sorts of unsolicited calls, especially at dinner time or after 8:00 p.m. when I am trying to get my children to sleep. These intrusions are invasive and unacceptable - lucky for us the Wisconsin Do Not Call List has stopped all of that. Please do not allow big corporations to weaken this necessary list.